

Chapter 25 - America Moves to the City (1865-1900)

Essential Question

How did the migrations that accompanied industrialization transform urban areas of the United States?

Essential Vocabulary

New immigrants

Social gospel

Settlement houses

Tuskegee Institute

Pragmatism

Yellow journalism

Realism

Naturalism

World's Columbian Exposition

Questions from Reading

1. What opportunities drew Americans into cities?
2. What were the challenges faced by American cities?
3. What was different about the "New Immigrants" of this time period? How did they shape the development of American cities?
4. How did political machines (ex. Boss Tweed) serve the needs of immigrants?
5. What were the goals of Jane Addams' Hull House?
6. What were settlement houses?
7. Describe the wave of nativism that began in the 1880s.
8. What developments in education took place during this time period?
9. What were the different goals of Booker T. Washington and W.E.B. DuBois?
10. How did changes in journalism influence this time period?
11. How did urbanization impact women's lives?
12. Describe the developments that took place in the women's suffrage movement.
13. Take notes on the artistic developments of this time period (realism, naturalism, regionalism).
14. What were the developments in the business of amusement?