

Chapter 29 - Wilsonian Progressivism in Peace and War (1913-1920)

Essential Question

What policies did the United States develop to address the domestic and international problems of the early 20th century?

Essential Vocabulary

Federal Reserve Act

Federal Trade Commission Act

Lusitania

Zimmerman Note

Fourteen Points

Committee on Public Information

Espionage Act

Industrial Workers of the World

Great Migration

Nineteenth Amendment

League of Nations

Treaty of Versailles

Questions from Reading

1. How did Wilson battle bankers and tame the trust?
2. What led the U.S. into WWI?
3. What were the goals of Wilson's 14 Points?
4. How did the U.S. deal with dissent on the homefront during WWI?
5. What was the economic impact of WWI?
6. What were Wilson's hopes for the peace process after WWI? How did that differ from the European powers?
7. What led to the U.S. rejection of the Treaty of Versailles?